

Most frequently asked questions

- 1. How long are the bands sets? For most weddings and private parties the band play 3, 1- hour shows, with 2, 25- minute breaks. The last show is 1- hour and 10- minutes,
With our 4, 45- minute shows, there are 3, 20- minutes breaks.
We also provide a three hour none stop show and dance extravaganza.
- 2. Does the band provide CD music during breaks? Yes! We do play CD music during breaks.
- 3. Can we play our own CDs during breaks? Yes you are welcome to play your own CD during breaks.
- 4. How many songs do we pick from your list? Check off all the songs you like and x out all the songs you don't.
- 5. Will the band learn songs? For weddings the band will learn the first dance, and the father- daughter dance if the songs are not on our list. Any other special songs can be played during the break from the CD that you provide. All songs should be submitted to us 1- month prior to the event.
- 6. How long do you need to set up equipment? We like to arrive at the venue at least 2 to 3- hours prior to the event, to make sure there are no unexpected or electrical problems. It usually takes about 30- minutes to an hour to set up our standard production. For the big production package it takes 2 to 3- hours to set up.
- 7. How does the band dress? For formal events the band wears tuxedos. For Semi- formal and casual events the band wears the appropriate attire.
- 8. Will you MC the event? Yes! We introduce wedding parties, birthdays, anniversaries, cake cutting, bouquet toss, fundraiser's, and any other special activity.
- 9. Does the band take special requests? Yes we do take special requests... especially if we know the song.
- 10. Does the band need a stage? We do prefer a stage, but we understand some places don't have the space, so we can play with out it.
- 11. Does the band provide cocktail music? Yes we offer a single Keyboard player or a jazz duo or trio for a 30- minute to an hour cocktail set, with vocalist upon request.